

Hatfield Public Library Local History Guide

What can we help you find?

a gravestone

Info on a Hatfield family or early resident

Hatfield's history

Take a look at . . .

- Map of all local cemeteries (on the back of this sheet).
- List of cemetery transcriptions in "Local Cemeteries" file (on shelf in Local History Section)
- FindaGrave.com website (can search by name or cemetery lookup).

All of this information is available on our website:
www.hatfieldpubliclibrary.org

Make sure you start with something you know for sure! Then try . . .

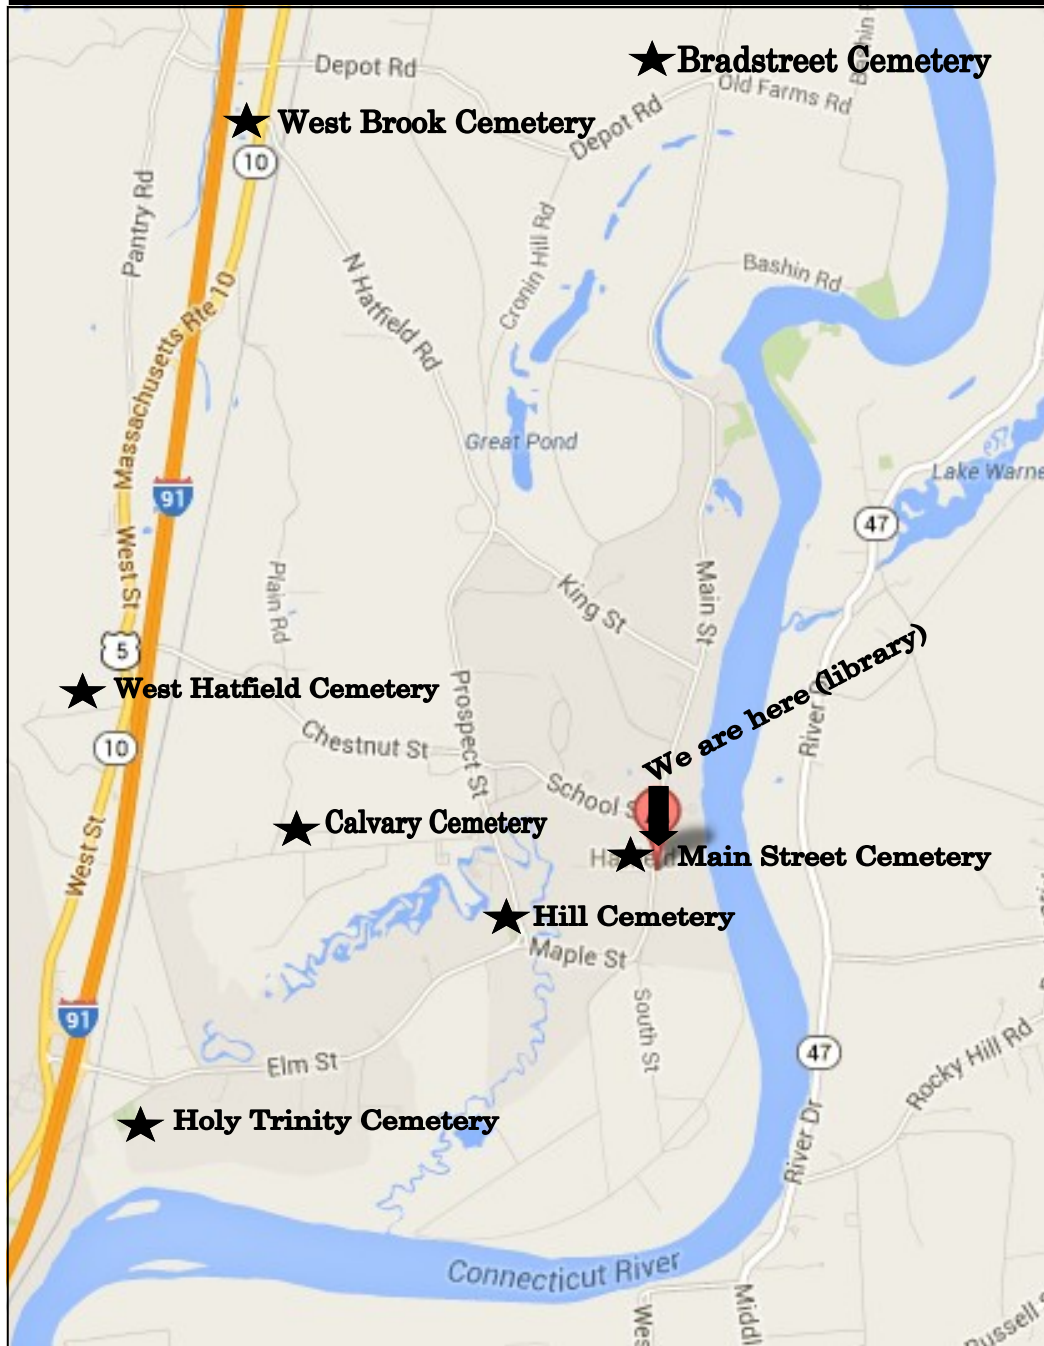

- Our family genealogies (on shelf)
- FamilySearch.org website
- Ancestry.com website (requires subscription, available free at Forbes library).
- For Divorce, Wills and Land Records go to the Registry of Deeds (see back)
- For Birth Certificates, Death Certificates and Marriage Certificates (if intentions were filed in Hatfield) go to Hatfield Town Hall (see back).
- Hatfield Tercentenary Genealogies (on the Hatfield Historical Society website under "Genealogy.")

Look in . . .

- Well's History of Hatfield (on shelf and online, see back)
- Town Annual Reports (on shelf and online, see back)
- Foxfire Reports (contact the Hatfield Historical Society)

Make an appointment with the librarian: email hatfieldpubliclibrary@gmail.com
(We cannot conduct research for individuals, but can help guide you to appropriate resources)
